SYMPATHY OF THE NATION

Enlisted in Behalf of the Sufferers from the Ravages of the Storm.

There has been no cessation in the receipt of messages and expressions of sympathy and the offers of relief that have come from all parts of the country since the terrible disaster of Saturday night. The sympathies of the entire nation are thoroughly aroused and are being generously tendered to the unfortunate victims of the awful calamity. Below are published the messages received since the last edition of The Post:

Theatrical Benefit at Sacramento.
S. H. Brashers, Mayor, Houston.
Sacramento, Cal., September 11, 5:30 p. m.—Management opera house gives benefit Friday for your people. Answer.
George W. Ficks.

The committee in answering expressed the thanks of the people.

Governor Asked for Tents and Beds.
Governor Sayers was requested to provide tents and beds to be used at Houston and wired the following reply:
Hon. S. H. Brashers, Houston.
Austin, Texas, September 11, 10:50 p. m. Telegram received. Will comply with request at the earliest moment. The tents and beds shipped from San Antonio must go to Galveston as quickly as possible. Please hurry them forward.
Joseph D. Sayers, Governor.

Bedding En Route.
Relative to the request to the governor for tents and beds to be used in Houston the following has been received:
S. H. Brashers, Mayor, Houston.
Austin, Texas, September 12, 11 a. m.—By direction of the governor I shipped you 140 woven wire bunks, 51 mattresses and 25 pillows—all we have on hand. Should be in Houston now.
L. P. Seiker, Quartermaster.

Provisions in Yard Offered.
S. H. Brashers, Mayor.
Houston, September 11.—Have instructed our agent to place any cars of provisions in Texas Transportation yards at your disposal tonight.
W. B. Mulvey.

Two Trains En Route.
New York, September 11, 9:15 p. m.—First Journal relief train with doctors, nurses and supplies leaves here tonight at 6:10. Chicago American train, similarly supplied, leaves at same hour from Chicago.

People of Texas Respond.
Money and Supplies are Being Raised for People of Galveston.

Victoria, Texas, September 12.—At a mass meeting at the court house last night, called on short notice, over $1000 was raised for the Galveston storm sufferers in a few minutes. This includes $500 telegraphed Governor Sayers by J. A. and Al McFarland. In addition to this $250 was subscribed by the Victoria railroad boys and wired to Houston last night.

Mr. G. C. Proctor of this city, who was in Galveston during the storm, and has saved in the steady bank on request related his experiences briefly. Committees are out today soliciting further subscriptions and it is believed that fully $25000 will be raised.

Marlin, Texas, September 12.—The citizens of Marlin forwarded last night through the First National bank of Marlin the sum of $1200 for the benefit of the storm sufferers. All the committees appointed by the mass meeting held at the court house yesterday afternoon are working hard to get the money to the sufferers. The relief fund of the Galveston flood and storm sufferers. Committees are collecting.

McKinney, Texas, September 12.—Citizens of this place telegraphed $451 today to the relief fund of the Galveston flood and storm sufferers. Committees are collecting.

Waco, Texas, September 12.—The Women's Relief Corps held a meeting yesterday at the Hotel Royal and appointed committees to solicit clothing for the flood sufferers. The committees went to work immediately and as a result a large case of clothing was expressed to the relief committee today.

Calvert, Texas, September 12.—The touching appeals of the suffering survivors of the storm-swept coast country have reached a responsive chord in the hearts of the people of this community. Mayor C. S. Meredith called a mass meeting of the citizens yesterday and $1000 was contributed in the meeting, which was wired to the governor. Committees were appointed to solicit further cash contributions and donations of wearing apparel.

Paris, Texas, September 11.—The sum of $1200 was sent to Governor Sayers today for the relief of sufferers. More contributions of money, clothing, provisions, etc., are still coming in and will be forwarded at once.

Weatherford, Texas, September 11.—Joe B. Rogers announced to the schools that he would forward contributions for the benefit of the sufferers, and this morning the school children gave something over $20. Further contributions will be received tomorrow and the amount will then be forwarded.

Minola, Texas, September 11.—Responding to a telegram from Governor Sayers, Mayor Huffman appointed Aldermen Read and Blasingame to solicit funds for Galveston sufferers. They raised $125, which have been forwarded.

The ladies at this evening to formulate plans for further assisting the stricken district.

Kaufman, September 11.—Mayor George Shaw is around with a subscription list for the Galveston storm sufferers, which is being liberally subscribed to. Can not tell what he will raise.

Beaumont, September 11.—The committees appointed by the mass meeting yesterday collected over $2000 in cash today for the benefit of the storm sufferers.

Chicago, September 11.—The people of Louisville have sincere sympathy for the people of Galveston in the great loss of life and property which they sustained. What can we do to aid? Answer.
President Louisville Board of Trade.
Secretary Chamber of Commerce, Galveston, Texas.

Chicago, Ill.—We are shocked by the awful devastation which has visited your State and extend sincerest sympathy.
George F. Stope, Secretary.

There being no organized board of trade in Galveston, the first telegram was opened by the chamber of commerce. No answers have been sent to date.

Lake Charles, La., September 12.—The committee organized here and at work to procure money, etc., will go forward to Galveston by the boat or rail at once. City council appropriated $500 and citizens committee now soliciting. John H. Poe, from city council, and H. Milligan, from citizens committee, appointed to spend $1000 at once for Galveston sufferers. Will go by express tonight.

THE LEAGUE CITY LOSS.
Every Family in Town is in Distress.
League City, Galveston County, Texas, September 10.—This town and vicinity has suffered in the extreme by the storm of the 8th instant. Many homes are entirely wrecked and families left without shelter. There is not a family in this vicinity but what has suffered great loss. No lives lost except W. E. Williams, who lived alone about two miles from town, and was found dead. All the churches and the school house are a total wreck. The people here are organizing crews and are doing what they can to fix up houses.

At a mass meeting seventy-five citizens passed resolutions asking the governor for aid, as many people have no means by which to replace their homes. The storm raged for ten hours and there could be no volunteers written about the narrow escapes of life and heroic deeds of the people.

MISSOURI CITY NEEDS AID.
Called Meeting of Citizens Sent Committee to Houston.
Missouri City, Texas, September 12.—The citizens had a called meeting and appointed G. W. Arnold, A. L. Smith and A. O. Saylor as a committee to go to Houston and secure aid for the storm sufferers. A committee was appointed to ascertain the amount of damages and report it at $57,325.

Mr. A. B. Bates and J. B. Kainel were sent out by the grand master of Independent Order of Odd Fellows and Houston committee to ascertain loss and present necessities of members of this lodge. The condition of people is critical in the extreme and money raising will result if aid does not come soon.

A Baby's Birth. is very much like the blossoming of a flower. Its beauty and perfection depend entirely upon the care bestowed upon its parent. Expectant mothers should have the tenderest care. They should be kept in good health and plenty of good nourishing food and take gentle exercises. This will give a long way toward preserving their health and their beauty as well as that of the little one to come. But to be absolutely sure of a short and painless labor they should use regularly during the months of gestation. This is a simple liniment, which is so applied externally. It gives strength and vigor to the muscles and prevents all of the discomforts of pregnancy, which women need to think were absolutely necessary. When Mother's Friend is used there is no danger whatever.

estate storehouse zone; H. Sauer's storehouse wrecked; W. L. Edmundson's dwelling off of blocks, office and barn zone; Mr. Berling's storehouse partly wrecked; J. P. Fred's dwelling completely demolished; Dr. I. P. Lamb's dwelling off of blocks; H. S. Danner's barn demolished; Mr. Crane of Houston, barn demolished; house of blocks; Otto N. Numan of Houston, barn demolished; house off blocks; Haack Bros., dwelling and barn demolished; Mrs. M. F. Wiseman's dwelling badly damaged; Bridges Wilber's dwelling damaged; Mrs. M. L. Burns' dwelling damaged and barn gone; F. H. Lindsay's barn demolished.

All who had barns lost more or less hay, some losing quite heavily from one to several cars. At least twenty-five families here need help badly, having lost all on earth they had. All are very thankful indeed that no one was killed; only two received quite serious injuries. Mrs. W. L. Edmundson's dwelling, Mrs. Kate Rucks was thrown down and sustained several bruises.

THE LOSSER AT WEBSTER.
One Body Washed into Clear Lake Was Recovered.
Webster, Texas, September 9.—The hurricane which spent its force at about 4 a. m. this morning left a scene of desolation in its wake. Within a radius of three miles from town with two or three exceptions not a barn or outhouse is left standing. The barns, not being constructed as strongly as the dwellings, are generally completely wrecked. Within the same radius but two or three houses are left intact. Some of them were only moved off the foundation, while others were tilted to all kinds of angles and some were even completely demolished. No fatalities reported except to stock confined in the barns that were razed to the ground and were caught in the debris. In some cases, one trunk packed and strapped as though ready for removal bears the name of Mrs. Howells, Houston. These men also found the dead body of a woman on the shore. She was clad in bathing suit and was probably trying to escape to high ground when overwhelmed by the rushing waters. The body will be taken care of and held for identification.

Some one men visited Clear Lake this evening and report seabrook wiped off the earth and the shore of the lake strewn with wreckage, evidently from seabrook. They saw pianos, trunks and household goods of all kinds, one trunk packed and strapped as though ready for removal bears the name of Mrs. Howells, Houston.
